

Being a resident of nearby Russell County, living only a few miles from the proposed plant, I welcome this with open arms. I feel the need for our society to search for newer and cleaner ways of producing energy to maintain our current lifestyle while doing so within the budgets of average citizens. This clearly a step in the right direction. Thanks. Edward Breeding

133 Hill Top Avenue
Lebanon, Va 24266